Displaying an architectural symphony of contemporary design and traditional elegance, this Beacon Hill townhouse features a marvelous 5 story skylight atrium. It has a elevator for those unwilling to climb the 5 flights of stairs. There is also a garden, 2 decks, central air, three bedrooms and two and a half baths, a library and separate study. This single family home is conveniently located close to downtown Boston, the Public Gardens and Boston Common.

Adjacent to the Back Bay is Beacon Hill, sharing its reputation as one of the most prestigious neighborhoods in Boston. This area offers the quintessential New England charm in cobblestone streets, gas lamps, historic homes, brick sidewalks, and hidden gardens. An intimate spirit has emerged among today's residents, bonded by a desire to protect the neighborhood's elegance, aesthetics, and historic significance. Most enjoy a 10-minute drive to employment centers in downtown Boston and the financial district. This primarily residential enclave features period homes that reflect the finest in architectural design and craftsmanship. Attractions include antique shops, gourmet food stores, boutiques, the Boston Common and the Public Gardens.
