Peaceful and historic, Westford claims the trademark of a New England community, the unspoiled and charming village green. Attracting newcomers to its tranquil, rural setting, Westford is among the fastest growing residential choices in Middlesex County. Scenic farmland, light industry, and small businesses blend harmoniously with attractive residential neighborhoods along tree-shaded lanes for a balanced economy and comfortable environment. Preserving the town's historic charm, home styles are dominated by colonial architecture and traditional split-entry designs. Newcomers will find new-home developments set in tranquil neighborhoods. Many homeowners have the advantage of lakes for swimming and ice-skating just beyond their doorstep, while Nashoba Valley ski areas are close to home for winter sports. Offering convenient access to major highways, Westford also boasts quality recreation opportunities centered around its many lakes, community facilities, and municipal programs.
